

Tour in Nepal

from 13/1/2020 to 19/1/2020

①

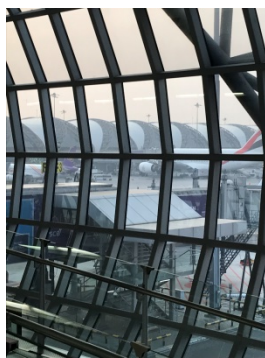

I joined the tour in Nepal of Trapics (Japanese tour agency.) at Centrair Airport at 10pm.

This time Mr.Udagawa is my fellow traveler.

We left the airport for Suvarnabhumi Airport in Thailand.

It was my first experience of flight for 6.5 hours. Seating myself for such long time was some kind of torture.

②

Suvarnabhumi Airport is a huge airport.
We left the airport for Tribhuvan Airport at 10:30am.

③ We arrived at 12:45am.

We were now in Kathmandu, the capital city of Nepal.

Main sites we visited Bhaktapur ,Pokhara, Kathmandu,

Bhaktapur Durbar Square is the royal palace of the old Bhaktapur Kingdom, 1,400 metres above sea level. It is a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The ancient city Bhaktapur lies on the Eastern part of Kathmandu valley which is also known as Bhadgaon or Khwopa, Bhaktapur. It is regarded as the abode of traditional Nepali culture, custom and unique arts of wooden and potteries. The historical monument on around signifies medieval age culture and tradition of Nepal and this old city is inhabited by indigenous Newari people in large group. The main attractive monuments are Nyatapola Temple, statue of King Bhupatindra Malla, Peacock Window, Golden Gate and fifty-five windowed palace of Bhaktapur Durbar Square.

flight to the Himalayan mountain range from Tribhuvan Airport

Pokhara

After flight near above the mountain range, we flew to the Pokhara airport to visit Pokhara. Pokhara is the second largest city of Nepal after Kathmandu. It is the headquarters of Kaski District, Gandaki Zone and the Western Development Region.

It lies 200 km west of Kathmandu. Three out of the ten highest mountains in the world — Dhaulagiri, Annapurna I and Manaslu — are within a linear distance of 50 km from the city.

Pokhara is also home to many Gurkha soldiers.

We can see the Himalayan mountains from Phewa lake.

Phewa Lake is located in the south of the Pokhara Valley that includes Pokhara city.

It is the second largest lake in Nepal, the most popular and most visited lake of Nepal.

The Annapurna range on the north is only about 28 km (linear distance) away[6] from the lake.

The lake is also famous for the reflection of mount Machhapuchhre and other mountain peaks of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges on its surface.

Bindhyabasini Temple

Bindhyabasini temple, one of the oldest temples in the Pokhara valley, is dedicated to Goddess Bhagawati, a popular deity .

It is situated at a small hill-lock in between the main old market and Bagar.

walk on Sarangkot

Sarangkot is the most popular tourist destination from where the tourists can enjoy the great view of the Pokhara Valley and the magnificent view of the mountains such as Annapurna Massif, Fishtail Mountain, Dhaulagiri range, and Manaslu, in addition, Sunrise and Sunset.

It was shame we didn't get that splendid views because of unseasonable bad weather.

(Sarangkot can be reached easily by 45 minutes by a car ride to the top from Pokhara and then 45 minutes hike up to the main view point.)

back to Kathmandu

We looked around many temples in Durbar Square.

Swayambhunath

Swayambhu is one of the holiest Buddhist stupas in Nepal. It is said to have evolved spontaneously when the valley was created out of a lake more than 2,000 years ago. This stupa is the oldest of its kind in Nepal and has numerous shrines and monasteries on its premises.

The stupa has Buddha's eyes and eyebrows painted on. Between them, the number one (in Devanagari script) is painted in the fashion of a nose.

18/1,19/1

We left Kathmand at 2pm on the 18th for Aich,Japan.

We arrived at the Centrair Airport at 7:30am on the 19th. It took us about 17 hours including tranfer time to come back to Japan..

Our tour

It was a shame of the rainy weather for the half of the time in Nepal.

But we enjoyed the tour with this guide Mr.Laji.

“ Your Japanese was excellent and you have amazing knowledge of the ancient culture of Nepal. Your explanations gave us deep impression about the heritage. Thank you so much. Mr.Laji.”
